

Statement of Cash Flows

---

4th Edition

Steven M. Bragg

Table of Contents

---

|  |           |
|--|-----------|
| Chapter 1 – The Statement of Cash Flows .....               | 1  |
| Learning Objectives .....  | 1         |
| Introduction .....   | 1         |
| Overview of the Statement of Cash Flows .....                      | 1         |
| Statement Objectives.....  | 1         |
| Statement Requirements .....                                       | 1         |
| Reporting Classifications .....                                    | 2         |
| The Direct Method .....  | 3         |
| The Indirect Method .....  | 6         |
| Presentation Variations .....                                      | 8         |
| Information Sources .....  | 9         |
| Illustration of the Preparation of a Statement of Cash Flows ..... | 11        |
| Additional Topics.....   | 12        |
| Business Combinations .....  | 12        |
| Discontinued Operations.....                                       | 13        |
| Foreign Currency Cash Flows.....                                   | 13        |
| Gains and Losses.....  | 13        |
| Hedging Activities .....   | 13        |
| Installment Sales .....  | 13        |
| Interest and Dividend Receipts .....                               | 14        |
| Interest Payments.....   | 14        |
| Non-Reportable Cash Events .....                                   | 14        |
| Non-Use of Cash Equivalents .....                                  | 14        |
| Receivables as Collateral .....                                    | 14        |
| Restricted Cash.....   | 15        |
| Sale of Receivables.....   | 15        |
| Securities Recorded at Fair Value.....                             | 15        |
| Tax Payments .....   | 15        |
| Advantages of the Statement of Cash Flows .....                    | 15        |
| General Advantages of the Statement of Cash Flows .....            | 15        |
| Advantages of the Direct Method of Presentation.....               | 16        |
| Advantages of the Indirect Method of Presentation .....            | 16        |
| Disadvantages of the Statement of Cash Flows.....                  | 16        |
| Net Presentation .....   | 16        |
| Data Collection Issues.....  | 17        |
| Disclosures .....  | 17        |
| Chapter Summary .....  | 19        |
| Review Questions .....   | 20        |
| Review Answers .....   | 21        |
| Chapter 2 – Cash Flow Analysis .....                        | 23 |
| Learning Objectives .....  | 23        |
| Introduction.....  | 23        |
| Overview of Cash Flow Measurements .....                           | 23        |
| Free Cash Flow.....  | 23        |
| Cash Flow per Share .....  | 24        |
| Cash Flow Return on Sales.....                                     | 25        |
| Cash Flow Return on Assets.....                                    | 25        |
| Cash Turnover Ratio .....  | 26        |
| Cash Reinvestment Ratio.....                                       | 26        |
| Interpreting the Statement of Cash Flows.....                      | 27        |
| Examination of Cash Flows from Operating Activities.....           | 27        |
| Examination of Cash Flows from Investing Activities.....           | 28        |

Table of Contents

|   |           |
|---|-----------|
| Examination of Cash Flows from Financing Activities ..... | 29        |
| Analysis Conclusions .....                                | 29        |
| Chapter Summary .....                                     | 30        |
| Review Questions .....                                    | 31        |
| Review Answers .....                                      | 32        |
| Glossary .....                                     | 33 |
| Index .....  | 35 |